"Run from the Cops" Walk & Run is a fun event for runners and walkers alike! A fun way to run from the cops and not even get arrested. There will be a line officers who are running the race, you're challenge will be to beat the cops to the finish line. This is a family oriented event so kids and strollers are welcome. For everyone's safety, NO pets, bicycles, or roller skates/blades please. The race/walk will start at 10am at the Fairbanks Police Department parking lot and the finish line will also be at the Fairbanks Police Department where registered participants can enjoy Donuts, Fruit, Coffee & Water while browsing the open house to provide a fun opportunity for kids and adults to view the police cars and equipment while interacting with police officers.

There will be a costume contest with prizes to be awarded for best costume, individually and as a group! There will also be awards for top finishers.

The "Run from the Cops" is a fun event to bring officers closer to the community they proudly serve. The money raised will be donated to Wish Upon The North Star, a charity organization formed by Alaskan Residents to grant wishes to Alaskan Children with life threatening illnesses. Come out and bring your family to enjoy a morning of exercise and fun on August 1, 2015 at 11 am!
