The following rents are exempt from the room tax levied in this chapter:

(Ord. No. 5652, § 1, 7-1-2006)

Sec. 74-121. Obligation of operator to collect.

Every operator making rentals taxable under this article shall collect the taxes from the guest at the time of rental, or with respect to credit transactions at the time of collection of rentals, and shall deliver the same to the City of Fairbanks in accordance with the requirements in this article. The operator shall be compensated the amount of two percent of the taxes transmitted to the city for the use of operator's resources in collecting the taxes. ARTICLE IV. HOTEL/MOTEL TAX

- (c) Upon receipt of a properly executed application for the certificate of registration, on a form prescribed by the chief financial officer, the chief financial officer will issue without charge to the operator a certificate of registration. The certificate of registration shall bear the name of the operator and the address of the registered place of business. The certificate must be prominently displayed at the place of business with the business license.
- (d) The certificate of registration is neither assignable nor transferable. The operator shall immediately surrender the certificate to the chief financial officer if the operator ceases to do business at the location named on the certificate, or if the operator otherwise sells, assigns, transfers, conveys, or abandons the operator's business to any person or any other entity. When there is a change of address for the operator's place of business, a new certificate of registration is required bearing the same registration number, but showing the new location address.
- (e) An operator must submit a new updated application as prescribed by the chief financial officer upon any change in form of ownership, business name, or contact information. The chief financial officer, after receipt of the updated application, shall then determine whether a new certificate of registration should be issued. If a new certificate of registration is issued, the operator must first surrender the prior certificate of registration to the chief financial officer before taking possession of the new certificate.
- (f) The chief financial officer may revoke a certificate of registration if an operator fails to comply with any of the provisions of this article. An operator may not rent a room subject to the tax imposed in this article while the certificate of registration is revoked.
- (g) Any operator who violates any requirement of this section is subject to the penalties provided under this article. The city is also entitled to injunctive relief to prevent the operator from engaging in room rental activities until the operator complies with the requirements of this section.
- (h) Any entity acquiring an ownership interest in an ongoing business or the accounts receivable of a business, whether by purchase, assignment, foreclosure, relinquishment, or otherwise, is liable for the payment of taxes, penalties, and interest accruing and unpaid to the city on account of the operation of the business by the former owner.

No operator shall advertise or hold out or state to the public or to any guest directly or indirectly that the tax or any part imposed by this article will be assumed or absorbed by the operator or that it will not be added to the rental, or that it will be refunded; or assume, absorb or fail to add the tax or any part or refund any pretended tax or fail to separately state the tax to the guest.

(Ord. No. 5652, § 1, 7-1-2006)

Sec. 74-124. Segregation of taxes collected; title.

Upon collection by the operator of the taxes imposed in this article, title to the collected taxes shall vest in the city. Pending transmittal to the city, the operator shall hold the tax funds in trust for the benefit of the city.

(Ord. No. 5652, § 1, 7-1-2006)

Sec. 74-125. Sales tax returns; transmittal; and payment of taxes due.

Sec. 74-126. Estimated tax.

If the city is unable to ascertain the tax due to be remitted by an operator by reason of the failure of the operator to keep accurate books, allow inspection, failure to file a return or falsification of records, the city may make an estimate of the tax due based on any available evidence. Notice of the city's estimate of taxes due shall be mailed to the operator. Unless the operator files an accurate monthly report covering the time period subject to the city's estimate or files a written appeal within 30 days of the mailing of the city's estimate, the city's estimate shall become final for the purpose of determining the operator's tax liability.

(Ord. No. 5652, § 1, 7-1-2006)

Sec. 74-127. Administrative appeals.

- (a) An operator may appeal to the city mayor any estimated tax, penalties, costs fees, or other decision under this article made by the chief financial officer. Any appeal must be filed within 30 days after the notice of any decision is mailed to the operator. The failure to appeal a decision to the chief financial officer renders the decision final.
- (b) The appeal must state the legal and factual basis for the appeal and include all written evidence relevant to the appeal within the appellant's possession. If the appeal raises relevant questions of fact, the city mayor or designee shall conduct a hearing. At the hearing, the parties shall have the right to present testimony and cross-examine witnesses. The mayor or designee shall then issue a written or recorded decision that includes findings of fact.
- (c) An administrative appeal decision by the city mayor is a final decision that shall be enforced under this article unless stayed by court order or by agreement of the city and appellant. The city mayor's final decision may be appealed to superior court in the fourth judicial district as provided by state law.

(Ord. No. 5652, § 1, 7-1-2006; Ord. No. 5901, § 1, 1-1-2013)

Sec. 74-128. Presumption; credit.

- (a) Every room rental which is made within the city, unless explicitly exempted by this article or a subsequent ordinance, shall be presumed to be subject to the tax imposed under this article in any action to enforce the provisions of this article.
- (b) A credit shall be allowed for taxes erroneously collected and paid under protest. Such credit shall be made by the chief financial officer after receipt and review of documentation and amended return supporting such request. Upon receipt of such documentation, the chief financial officer shall examine the documentation and shall in writing submit the decision within 15 days.

- (d) The use of such returns in a criminal or civil action brought to enforce the terms of this article against any person shall not be deemed a violation of this article; and the city in the prosecution of any such action may allege, prove and produce any return theretofore filed by and in behalf of the defendant, including any data obtained from such return, other provisions of this article to the contrary notwithstanding.
- (e) Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a person or his duly authorized representative a copy of any return or report filed by him, nor to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and their items.

ARTICLE IV. HOTEL/MOTEL TAX

- (e) All subpoenas issued under the terms of this article may be served by any person. The fees of witnesses for attendance and trial shall be the same as the fees of witnesses before the superior court, such fees to be paid when the witness is excused from further attendance. This lien arises when any such payment or remittance is not made when due and continues until the payment or remittance is fully satisfied through execution, foreclosure sale, or any other legal means.
