Sec. 2-471. - Public safety commission.

A public safety commission is hereby established to advise the city mayor and council on matters relating to public safety in the Fairbanks community.

(Ord. No. 5553, § 1, 1-1-2004; Ord. No. 5890, § 1, 8-25-2012)

Sec. 2-472. - Duties and powers.

The public safety commission shall:

- (1) Research issues that are delegated to the commission by the mayor and/or city council and provide advice to the mayor or city council on the referred issues. Advise the council and mayor regarding police, fire suppression and prevention, emergency medical services, and operation of emergency services dispatch services.
- (2) Receive and analyze public comments and any complaints that may come before the commission and make recommendations to the mayor and city council.
- (3) Meetings of the commission shall be held quarterly or on an "as needed" basis. All meetings shall be held in public after adequate notice of the date, time, and location. The commission does not have the power to meet privately in executive session.
- (4) The jurisdiction of the public safety commission does not extend to issues or subjects that have been referred to the city fact finding commission, disciplinary matters, evaluation of employees for promotion, or as otherwise limited by law or terms of labor contracts.

(Ord. No. 5553, § 1, 1-1-2004; Ord. No. 5890, § 1, 8-25-2012)

Sec. 2-473. - Composition.

- (a) The membership of the public safety commission shall be appointed by the city mayor and shall be confirmed by the city council. The seven voting members shall be selected as follows:
 - (1) One member with current or past experience in law enforcement or criminal law.
 - (2) One member with current or past experience in fire suppression, prevention, or emergency medical services.
 - (3) Five at-large public members.
- (b) One city council member shall be a non-voting member of the commission.
