

CRISIS NOW

Implementing a Behavioral Health Crisis System of Care in Alaska

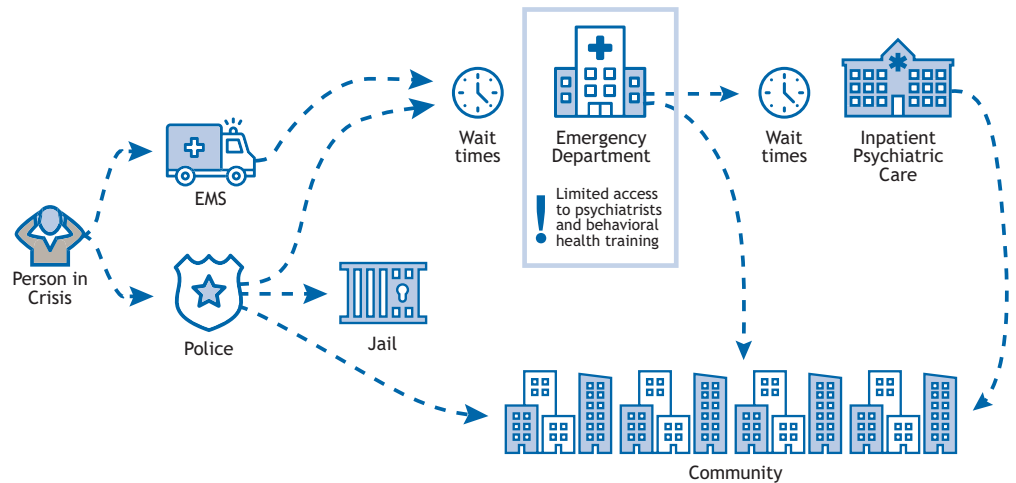

The Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority is contracted with Agnew::Beck Consulting to provide project management support in order to plan and implement a behavioral health crisis system of care, using the Crisis Now Framework as a guide.

Why Crisis Now?

Our current system of care:

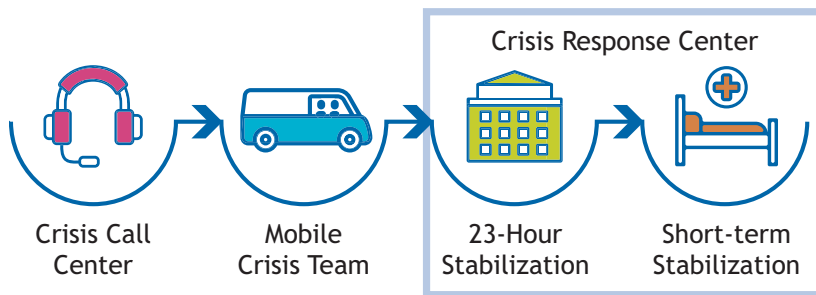

- Is challenged to provide timely access to crisis services
- Is unable to meet individuals “where they are at”
- Relies on law enforcement, the criminal justice system and hospital emergency rooms to respond to behavioral health crisis
- Has reduced capacity at Alaska’s only state-run psychiatric hospital

Current Behavioral Health Crisis Response

What is the Crisis Now Framework?

Someone to Talk to, Someone to Respond and a Place to Go

SAMHSA's National Guidelines for Behavioral Health Crisis Care - A Best Practice Toolkit outlines minimum expectations and best practices for the design, development and implementation of a behavioral health crisis care continuum.

Essential Principles & Practices

- Recovery oriented
- Significant role for peers
- Trauma-informed care
- Zero Suicide/Suicide Safer Care
- Safety and security for staff and people in crisis
- Crisis response partnerships

The Crisis Now framework offers multiple opportunities for resolution, increasing opportunity for intervention at less intensive levels of care and decreasing reliance on inpatient psychiatric beds.

Project Outcomes

Physical Health Emergency

Implementation of a behavioral health crisis system of care means people experiencing a behavioral health crisis get the right care, in the right setting, when they need it, just like what we expect for individuals experiencing a physical health crisis.
